Announcement

Demonstration Agent Tiller has agreed to conduct a department in this paper for the farmers:

The selection and preparation of the matter for this department will be entirely with Mr. Tiller and Miss Mims, the home demonstration worker. This department will start next week, and continue as long as it seems advisable.

Many farmers in this county are growing velvet beans in a limited way for the first time this year. Some of them will not grow them again because the corn is being wrapped up so that no fodder can be pulled.
Fodder pulling is still considered profitable by a great many people.

The county campaign opened up in full blast at Brock's mill yesterday. There is an unusually large number of candidates this year, and the campaign promises to be an interesting one, though it will be a little tiresome if all the candidates insist upon their right to speak.
The race for sheriff has been hardest fought, perhaps, up to this time, but the race for superintendent of education and that for representative will probably hold more attention in the campaign.

The recent rainy weather emphasized anew the need for keeping plenty of humus or vegetable matter in all farming lands.
Cotton on clean sandy land almost died, and it has the poorest cotton at all to make enough to pay for the fertilizer, while cotton on humus-filled land has withstood the rains and is thriving. Tiller is making a big effort to induce all Chesterfield county farmers to sow cover crops for the winter. Tiller can't afford to lie about the benefits of these crops of clover, rye and vetch, and his advice doesn't cost anything. Talk it over with him, and then go ahead.

Chas. E. Hughes, the Republican candidate for president, made his speech of acceptance a few days ago, and it was a wonder. He has been loosing ground faster since he made it than before. He criticised President Wilson very severely and made it clear that nothing had been done right since the Democrats came to the wheel. He said it was all wrong, but he neglected to say how it could be righted. Considering the fact that he had nothing to work upon, he probably did very well with his generalities. His attempts to discredit Wilson however have had the opposite effect, and Hughes is being discredited by his own conduct.
He is now making a tour of the West and repeating his vague charges against the greatest president the country has ever had.

Revival at Baptist Church

The revival meeting at the Baptist church here begins next Sunday. Rev. D. P. Montgomery is to do the preaching. The harbor under which the meeting will be held is nearing completion. It is on the upper corner of the church lot and is 60x80 feet.

In Memory of Miss Mamie Simp- son

"In the midst of life we are in death." This lovely girl was stricken with a violent disease that no earthly power could arrest and after a few weeks drifted to the life eternal. Her death caused sorrow to all who knew her, and her christian life was an example to all. Her life was one of unselfishness. We feel assured that her heavenly Father had a place in His Kingdom for her, and chose her as one of his jewels for the everlasting home. She has gone to the fair land of rest and sunshine, where with unclouded vision she has seen the "King in His beauty" and will be walking and watching to welcome her loved ones home.

"Like the bloom of midnight darkness

Comes this shadow to our hearts, When with this precious, cherished loved one,

We are called upon to part.
Dark the way and deep the shadow

Of the path that leads ahead,
When we know that happy Mamie

Now is numbered with the dead.

No, not dead, but with the sleepers,

Sweetly resting for awhile,

Only waiting for her loved ones,

And her savior's blessed smile.

Courage then dear faltering loved ones,

Wait a while and you will know That God took her home to heaven

Just because He loved her so We will see her at the Judgement,

Robed in an angels radiant gown

In her hand, a harp of glory,

On her head, a golden crown.

Pageland Boy "Makes Good" in Atlanta

Mr. G. W. Kennington, Jr., who has been visiting his parents here for several days, has made a splendid record in Atlanta since going there two years ago.
He was formerly manager of the Union Drug company here. After leaving here he spent one year at Rutherford college, one year at the State University of South Carolina and then entered the Atlanta College of Pharmacy, where he took the Ph. G. and Ph. C. courses at one time.
For two years he kept up his studies and worked in a local drug store and earned money to pay his way. Last year he was given an assistant professorship, and gave a few hours each week in lectures. At the end of the term he graduated at the head of his class, making a general average of 96. Before he was through school he stood examination before the Alabama State board and passed, and later took the Georgia board and passed with a splendid showing.

He has been given a professorship in this college for next year, and will devote a certain number of hours a day to his classes.
His former employer has given him a raise in salary for his time when he is not in the college, and thus he gets a handsome salary.
